About the Political Reform Act

How to Get Help

The Political Reform Act of 1974

The Political Reform Act (the “Act”) was a voter-approved initiative on the 1974 primary election ballot. One of the major provisions of the Act requires the disclosure of campaign contributions and expenditures during elections.

The Fair Political Practices Commission

The Fair Political Practices Commission is the independent, nonpartisan state agency authorized to implement, interpret, and enforce the provisions of the Political Reform Act. The Commission is comprised of a full-time chair appointed by the Governor, and four part-time commissioners, one each appointed by the Controller, the Attorney General, the Secretary of State, and the Governor. Each serves a four-year term and no more than three members may be from the same political party. Commission staff members are divided into four divisions: Administration, Enforcement, Legal, and Technical Assistance.

Governing Statutes

The Political Reform Act is contained in Government Code Sections 81000-91014.

Regulations

Regulations interpreting the Political Reform Act are located at Title 2, Division 6 of the California Code of Regulations, beginning at Section 18109.

Opinions and Advice Letters

The Commission periodically issues opinions interpreting provisions of the Political Reform

Act. The opinions are adopted at a public meeting, with opportunity for input from interested persons.

In addition, FPPC staff issues written advice letters as to the applicability of the Political Reform Act and regulations to a particular factual situation. See the FPPC publication “How Do I Get Advice From the FPPC?” available on our website.

FPPC staff does not provide advice by e-mail.

Obtaining Information from the FPPC

Write, call, or visit the FPPC to get copies of specific advice letters or to be put on our mailing lists.

Website

The Commission’s website (www.fppc.ca.gov) contains a wealth of helpful information, including:

- The Political Reform Act and its corresponding regulations
- Commission opinions
- Notices of Commission meeting dates and agenda, supporting documentation for agenda items, and meeting summaries
- Forms required by the Act (also available at the FPPC’s offices, the Secretary of State’s offices, and many local clerks’ offices)

- Manuals, fact sheets, and useful summaries of the law
- Schedules of upcoming seminars and educational workshops

Additional Campaign Manuals

Additional copies of this manual, and manuals for other types of campaign committees are available from the Commission, the Secretary of State, and many city clerks or county registrars. Manuals are available for:

- State Candidates and officeholders, and committees primarily formed to support/oppose candidates
- Local Candidates and officeholders, and committees primarily formed to support/oppose candidates
- General purpose recipient committees (including PACs, sponsored committees, political party committees, and county central committees)
- Ballot measure committees
- Major donor and independent expenditure committees
- Slate mailer organizations

Commission Bulletin

The Commission publishes a free bulletin. Information regarding enforcement cases, legislation and litigation updates, workshop announcements, educational articles and advice letter summaries are regularly included. Persons interested in obtaining the Bulletin may contact the Commission to be placed on the e-mail Bulletin mailing list by going to the “Mailing Lists” page of the FPPC website.

Computer Generated Statements

Interactive campaign forms may be found at the Commission’s website at www.fppc.ca.gov.

In lieu of using official FPPC forms, candidates and committees may produce their own computer-generated forms using FPPC’s format. If filers choose to produce their own form, they must obtain Commission approval before it may be filed. Approval will be granted on forms that contain all of the required information in a format substantially similar to the Commission’s forms. If substantive changes are made to a previously-approved form, the amended form should be submitted for approval. Also, each January, the Commission should be contacted to determine if there have been changes to the disclosure statements that may require changes to computerized forms.

In addition, the Commission maintains a list of commercial software vendors who have received Commission approval for their software packages. Contact the Commission if you are interested in obtaining this list. The list is also available on the Commission’s website (www.fppc.ca.gov).

Need Help Fast?

Assistance may be obtained regarding filing requirements, forms, or an upcoming issue by calling the Commission’s Technical Assistance Division at (916) 322-5660, or toll-free at (866) 275-3772, ext. 2.

For even more information! The Commission periodically conducts educational workshops on various topics. Contact the Technical Assistance Division or the website to see if a workshop is coming to your area.

Campaign statements are filed with the Secretary of State and city and county filing officers, depending upon the type of committee filing. (See Chapter 6.)

Enforcement

The Fair Political Practices Commission, the Attorney General, county district attorneys, and elected city attorneys of charter cities have enforcement authority under the Act.

Failure to provide all or any part of the information required by the Political Reform Act is a violation subject to:

- An administrative enforcement proceeding before the Fair Political Practices Commission;
- A criminal misdemeanor proceeding;
- A civil action; and
- Levying of late penalties by filing officers.

Penalties up to $5,000 per violation may be imposed for not filing campaign statements.

Additional information on the Commission's enforcement procedures is available on the website at www.fppc.ca.gov.
